Washington, who is ranked 38th in the world and turned pro in 1989, was to play the winner of last night's match between No. 7 Wayne Ferreira and unseeded Amos Mansdorf. The 14th-seeded Washington, who reached his first career final earlier this year in New Zealand, broke service in the opening game when Connors lobbed long from the baseline and then went on to an easy first set. Connors, seeded 16th and ranked 46th, broke serve to tie the second second set at 5-5, but Washington broke back and served out the match. (AP)	False		1992-02-24	TX 3-257018

But when reviewing I.B.M.'s performance last year, it really does seem reasonable for I.B.M. to reduce its force by 10 percent. Ms. Morriss seems to ignore the need for top performance by our workers if we are to maintain our pre-eminence in manufacturing. I.B.M. must become lean and mean to compete.
